HIGH LABOR OFFICIALS TO MEET AT WASHINGTON NEXT TUESDAY TO PLAN DEFENSIVE FIGHT ON OPEN SHOP

By RALPH COUCH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14—Plans to fight the open or non-union shop movement will be made by labor leaders from all parts of the United States at a series of meets which will begin on February 22, Secretary Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor said today. The executive council of the Federation will met February 22, and the following day two representatives of each of the 109 international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor will caucus here.

President Samuel Gompers of the Federation, who in a recent speech attacked the employers who are fighting to suppress labors right to collective bargaining, will preside at the meeting. "The employers are making little progress with their fight to establish non-union shop conditions," said George Morrison today. "There are few places which have worked under union shop contracts that have changed to the non-contract of non-union shop plans. This would precipitate strikes. There have been few big strikes in the last six months."

REPUBLICANS READY TO FORCE TARIFF BILL THROUGH; BRING IT UP TODAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—Republican Senators planned to call up the emergency tariff bill soon after the session opened today and keep it to the fore until it has been voted upon A canvass today indicated that the bill probably will pass unless some of the doubtful Senators consider the tariff rates on sugar objectionable.

FURTHER DROPS IN CRUDE OILS OUGHT TO BRING STILL CHEAPER GASOLINE

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 14—Further cuts in the price of gasoline was thought probable here today. Crude oil prices have been reduced 50% within a month and is now selling at $1.75 a barrel. The reduction in the price of gasoline has not approximated the crude oil slump and it is for this reason that further gasoline price reductions are expected.

Mr Philips has long been a member of the State Game Commission, is one of Pennsylvania's leading and best informed sportsmen and would like to meet as many Clearfield sportsmen as possible during his stay here.

A public hearing will be held on the different game bills at Harrisburg tomorrow and as it will be impossible for us all to attend that hearing and give our views on this vital legislation, we can all see Mr. Phillips tonight and give him first hand information on our feelings as to some of the freak legislation now before the legislature on the matter of game propagation and protection.

HOOVER MAY HAVE COMMERCE POST IF HE WILL ACCEPT SAY THE DOPESTERS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 22—Herbert Hoover will be Secretary of Commerce in Harding's cabinet, if he will accept the post, according to the belief of persons close to President-elect Harding. Hoover had previously been mentioned but his name was withdrawn because of opposition by many Senators including Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, but Harding has hope of mollifying the opposition. It is possible that Johnson may be called to St. Augustine to discuss the situation with Harding.

Reports that Senator Fall of New Mexico will be Secretary of the Interior are true according to friends here today.

BURGLAR ALARM AT CLEARFIELD BANK BROUGHT A CROWD

Slight Defect in Wiring Caused Newly Installed Alarm System To Go Off Sans the Burglar.

PROVES VERY EFFECTIVE

About 5:30 o'clock last evening the burglar alarm on the Clearfield National Bank startled the community and in less time than it takes to relate it a crowd collected in front of the bank that completely blocked the streets. Officials of the bank were promply on hand and while making an investigation the alarm stopped ringing as suddenly as it began.

A thorough investigation was made, but no cause could be found for the alarm being sounded. Today an electrician located a weak point in the relay system that was responsible for the scare.

The promptness with which a crowd collected last evening when the gong sounded demonstrated the practicability of the additional protection that all the Clearfield banks have recently installed.

The alarm yesterday afternoon was plainly heard on Cemetery road and on South Second street at the "point."

The meeting was called to order promptly at 11 o'clock by W. H. Nupp, President of the Association who in a few well chosen remarks welcomed the supervisors present.

In the absence of J. D. Connelly who was engaged to welcome the supervisors to the city, but unavoidably absent, E. M. Westcott, superintendent of state highways for Clearfield county, welcomed the visitors to the city and spoke briefly on the matter of problems confronting road maintenance work.

Take a tip from The Progress. You no doubt intend to go to the Legion band concert on Washington's Birthday, next Tuesday a week, and we do not want you to be disappointed. Remember that there is a limit to the capacity of the theater and also that there are a lot of people who are going to act quickly in getting their tickets reserved. If you intend to go, your best and only safe plan would be to call up NOW and have your tickets reserved. You will be disappointed if you do not. We have heard dozens say, "sure I'm going but I just neglected to get my ticket." Do not put it off any longer.

CRESCENT CONCERT DREW FULL HOUSE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Curwensville Musicians Rendered Fine Program And It I Hoped They Will Come Here Again.

APPLAUSE WAS GENEROUS

The Crescent Band of Curwensville gave a most highly enjoyable concert at the Clearfield High school auditorium yesterday. This excellent band is well and most favorably known to Clearfield people and as a result the large auditorium was filled to capacity when 3 o'clock, the hour set for the start of the concert arrived.

Under the leadership of Prof. Tony De Marco the band rendered a program of twelve numbers, ending with the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Crescent Band, as everyone knows, is one of the very best bands in this entire region, and on this occasion added greatly to its already fine reputation. The character of Sunday's program and the manner of its execution would have done credit to many professional bands and each and every number was most generously applauded by the large audience present.

The members of the Crescent band are nearly all young men, but are finished musicians in every case.

Prof. De Marco is a particularly able instructor and under his most capable direction the Crescent band is bound to add to its fame and glory.

Come again, boys; your concert was a real treat.

NO ACTION TAKEN YET ON DRY LAWS IN LEGISLATURE

Indications Are That Any Enforcement Measure to Have Hard Sledding to Be Made a Law.

ILL WILL APPEAR SOON

Harrisburg, Feb. 14.—Although definite steps have been taken to obtain at this session of the legislature a more drastic prohibition enforcement law, the sixth week of the session has arrived without the contemplated bill having put in an appearance.

Governor Sproul in his biennial message to the assembly stated it would not be necessary to repeal the present law but might be advisable to amend it so as to "conform to the federal law."

Recently a delegation from the Anti-Saloon League visited the governor and obtained from him an assurance that if their proposed bill to repeal the Brooks law and substitute an "adequate" enforcement law is passed by the legislature, he will affix his signature thereto.

It is generally believed among members of the legislature that the governor is safe from further committal toward a policy in this matter. The bill will stand ar very slim chance of passing the legislature if it is ever introduced, according to indications.

The governor is now on record as opposed to repeal of the Brooks license law. He further established his position of prohibition enforcement when he said that the federal statutes should be adhered to.

"The provisions of the federal enactments would be the law of the state as well and every peace officer of the commonwealth would be charged with the duty of enforcing them," if his original policy is carried out, according to his own statements.

"Pennsylvania should have an enforcement law in keeping with the experience of other states where prohibition codes have been and are being enacted," said Dr. Tope, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, folowing his conference with the governor.

"It was the consensus of opinion that the state enforcement code should contain adequate penalties, a nuisance section and reasonable search and seizure provisions in order to make it effective," he said.

Well-Preserved Water Pipes.

Wooden water pipes that were used from the time of the Revolution until the fire of 1872 to carry water into Boston have lately been unearthed and are found to be in a good state of preservation. A coin of the date 1803 in an almost perfect condition was found near one of the pipes, establishing, it would seem, the date at which the pipe was laid.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. William Daub, who was operated on in Clearfield Hospital for the removal of a goitre, will return to that institution for another operation and medical treatment.

Daniel Jones is confined to the house by illness. He is pretty well advanced in years and cannot stand the hard knocks of labor as in days of yore.

Miss Lucy Brennetti was taken suddenly ill on Sunday evening and for several days her condition was rather serious. She is reported as being somewhat improved.

A couple of our Italian residents have gone into trade and have opened a second hand furniture store in the west room of the Graff block.

Two or three of the town stores were selling sugar at 8 cents per pound, Saturday.

Olmstead Lewis, an aged colored man, died at his residence on South Side, Saturday evening about 5 o'clock. His age was about 80 years, or perhaps a few years more, as he really did not know for a certainty, and one can only judge from the time when he was a slave before the Civil War. He suffered a stroke one day last week and being physically run down, caused his demise. Mr. Lewis came into this section from the south with a bunch of colored men, brought here by Cavan to grade the railroad bed between this place and Clearfield. After that work was completed he settled down in Curwensville and became a citizen. Most of his years were spent in the tanneries. He was an inoffensive man and was generally well thought of by the people. He was married to a woman by name of Carl. A number of children were born to them, five of whom survive, three sons and two daughters. The three sons reside in this place, one daughter in Buffalo and the other address is unknown.

Mrs. Lewis died a number of years ago and is buried in Oak Hill cemetery. The time of the funeral will be announced later.

The much talked about wrestling match, which came off Friday night in the Crescent Band room, between Patterson and Edwards, did not create much of a flurry among Curwensville sports as the small attendance testified. Patterson was given the decision. As a preliminary Young Test and Vic Grande had a tryout, Test bringing his opponent to the mat in eight minutes. It was stated that Patterson and Edwards each received the magnificent sum of $5.50 as their share of the gate receipts.

Pete Gifford, who is at present located in Indiana county, came to Curwensville Saturday to spend a few days with his mother and sister.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smeal, one day last week, a son. Mrs. Smeal was Miss Ethel Evans, a daughter of Thomas Evans, before marriage.

Mrs. Charles Strauss, who fell on the walk near her home on Grampian road, last October, and broke a hip, is now able to be about the house, using a pair of crutches for support and guidance.

Ralph Starr, superintendent of the public schools at Lumber City, was a town business visitor, Saturday.

Old Dr. Stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Humphrey, in Pike township, Sunday morning and left a fine baby girl. Both parents, as well as the grandparents, are highly elated over the event.

Mrs. Mina Goon, who resides in New York state, accompanied by her two children, is visiting at the home of her son, Alten Goon, Anderson street, South Side.

Mrs. Powell and daughter, of Arcadia, spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Rankin, Anderson street, South Side. They returned home on Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Rankin, who will visit in Indiana county for a week or so.

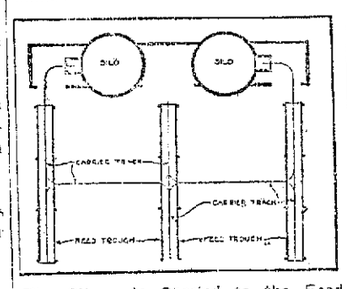
SILAGE CARRIERS TO FACILITATE FEEDING

Equipment Need Not Be Elaborate or Expensive.

Convenient Arrangement for Carrying Feed to Bunks Is Shown in Illustration—One Silo Is Emptied at a Time.

For steer feeding, silage is cheap and efficient. Whether it is fed to breeding cattle, fattening steers, stockers or baby beeves, there is no other feed in the corn belt that can entirely replace it at the same low cost.

An equipment for feeding silage conveniently is shown in the illustration. It is not elaborate or expensive, but is made strong and serviceable. There are three long, flat-bottomed feed-bunks, each 4 feet wide and 36 feet long. They are made of 2-inch lumber and are supported by 3-inch wrought-iron pipe set in concrete.



The Silage Is Carried to the Feed Troughs in a Very Short Time.

The carrier-tracks are supported from above by steel posts and plank girders. They connect the silage chutes and the feed bins. All the carrier-tracks are connected, so that one silo can be emptied at a time. The feed-bunks are used for both silage and grain feeding.

Feeders generally plan to have the feed-bunks low, as high troughs have caused sagging backs in steers.—W. E. Prudden, in Popular Science Monthly.

IMPROVEMENT OF PET STOCK

Officials of Bureau of Animal Industry Puzzled as to Where to Draw Dividing Line

Applications to recognize the improved breeding of such stock as Belgian hares, wild ducks raised in captivity, game birds, and dogs is making it difficult for officials of the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture, to determine just where the dividing line between farm live stock and other animals, including pet stock, should be drawn in developing the "Better Sires—Better Stock" campaign. The classes in which particular efforts toward improvement by the use of pure-bred sires are being directed include cattle, horses, asses, swine, sheep, goats, and poultry.

A supplementary list of pet stock and miscellaneous animals is being kept, and thus far 176 such animals, all bred to pure-bred sires, have been listed. The predominance of interest, of course, is in the improvement of general farm live stock, of which nearly 400,000 head are now listed with the department.

SOY BEAN GROWING POPULAR

Rapidly Becoming Crop of Special Importance Because of Big Possibilities of Seed.

The soy bean has become a crop of special importance throughout the country, which is indicated by the large acreage devoted to it in 1920 and the increased interest in the possibilities of the seed for food and for oil. The introduction of new varieties by the United States Department of Agriculture has been largely responsible for extending the growing area of the crop not only in the North and West but in the extreme South.

During the past year the Mandarin, Easy Cook, Aksarben and Hoosier were placed in trade in the northern states. In the South, the Otootan, Laredo and Biloxi are being widely grown.

VALUE OF SILAGE

One ton of silage equals one ton of sugar beets.

Three tons of silage equal one ton of clover hay.

Three and one-half tons of silage equal one ton of lucerne hay.

Two and one-fourth tons of silage equal one ton of marsh hay.

One-half ton of silage equals one ton of pumpkins.

BUSINESS AND TRADE

With Special Attention to Coal, Clay and Brick Trade News of Local Interest.

The Connellsville Courier, recognized mouth piece of the coke region, has the folowing observation of the effect of Judge Gary's decision to sit tight on coke prices and wages:

The announcement of Judge Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, that existing wage scales and prices are to remain unchanged, creates less surprise in the coke region than would have been the case had the announcement been made a month or six weeks earlier.

Around the close of the year there were indications that sooner or later there would be a downward revision in wages paid by the leading interest in the steel industry, but as the weeks passed without such action being taken, and the situation of the steel corporation with respect to the iron and steel trade became somewhat stronger, and its purpose to hold to its schedules of steel prices became known, the impression began to be general that a wage reduction was a more and more remote possibility. When, therefore, the announcement was made that the corporation has no present intention of changing either selling prices or wages, it was accepted by the merchant and independent furnace coke producers as confirmation of the view which has crystalized during the past month.

It is not anticipated that the decision with respect to continuing the present wage scale will have any pronounced effect upon the coke situation unless it should later develop that the independent steel producers start a price cutting movement and it would acquire such importance that the steel corporation would have to follow suit.

In the present situation with the coke market absolutely dead, and the consumption reduced to the lowest possible limits, the fact that production costs will not be lessened through a reduction of wages, will not stimulate the price of coke, as might easily result under different conditions in the trade. With virtually no demand for coke, either beehive or by-product, the producers have no incentive to run their plants and no intention of doing so until furnaces have resumed and normal conditions have operated to restore prices to a level that will make operation profitable under prevailing production costs.

Among some coke operators, who have been inclined to view that by April 1 at latest, there would be a reduction in wages, there is a feeling of disappointment. This is not universally shared, however, the determination to accept the situation courageously being, on the whole, unchanged. Moreover the coke producers have never been averse to paying the highest wages market conditions will permit, and will not now oppose their continuance. In the existing situation, with no prospect of wage reductions in sight, the market must adapt itself to the conditions which are imposed upon it by the costs of production in which respect the producers of by-product coke are affected in precisely the same way as the producers of beehive.

There will be a feeling of great satisfaction among the workers of the region that there is to be no downward revision in the wage scale at this time, particularly at a time when the running time of the few plants in blast is being more or less curtailed, some of the extent of only one day a week.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By "Skinney"

In other days in a situation such as we are now endeavoring to "ride down," "big business" used to pull the pilars out from under the temple of finance, a la Sampson, creating a financial panic thereby and then fattening on the spoils of the wreck and ruin. Thanks to the Federal Reserve Act, it can't be done that way any more. Now they concertedly shut down industrial plants, etc., and hope to slash labor's share by forcing him to accept lower wages or starve. It's a great game either way.

We can't altogether fathom Woodrow's single track mind, and can't for the life of us see why he persists in keeping poor old Debs in the penitentiary as an enemy of the courtry and yet allows A. Mussemup Palmer to continue as attorney general of this great nation.

Ellis Searles, editor of the Mine Workers' Journal, official organ of the union coal miners of the country, has concluded a search for the oldest miner in the country. The palm for long service goes to William James, of Smoke Run, Pa., who, after 78 years' service in the mines here and in Wales, until recently has been working under ground and holding up his end with the younger men when it comes to getting out coal.

Interesting as is James' record, it is less interesting than the large number of men found to have been working in the mines longer than most men live. In the list as uncovered are 23 who have passed more than 70 years in the mines; several score have done better than 60 years; men who have served only 50 years are comparatively youngsters in the Searles tabulation, which drew the line at noticing any miner who had not worked at least 40 years.

The larger number of veterans is surprising because coal mining, and particlarly bituminous mining, is not generally considered conductive to longevity. Accidents and disease peculiar to the mines, miner's asthma, for example, make mining one of the least healthy of the more important occupations, so that James and his veteran companions may be said to demonstrate the doctrine of "survival of the fittest." Necessarily it follows that for such long service at this class of work initial fitness is essential.

"I was born in Wales on January 18, 1836," James wrote to the editor of the Journal; "started in the mines when I was 6 years of age and quit on the third day of July, 1920. I will be 85 my next birthday. I have belonged to the union ever since I came to this country, in 1880."

World Has Many Lepers.

Neither geography, climate, diet, heredity nor any other known influence sufficiently explains the cause, the distribution or the behavior of leprosy. There is no discovered certain cure for it, and the cases of complete recovery, if there have been such, are rare. To most Americans it is happily only a name made familiar by Biblical mention or by reports of missionaries to far-off lands; and the estimate that there are 2,000,000 of these hopeless sufferers in the world comes to many people as a surprise.—Rochester Post-Express.

Bound to Get His Share.

Little five-year-old Willie was invited to a birthday party. On his return home his mother was surprised to see him take two big pieces of cake out of his pocket. When asked for an explanation Willie replied: "Mamma I could not eat much because my stomach was full, so I brought some things home."

PUT FIGHTING QUALITIES IN YOUR BLOOD

If You Are Pale and Weak, Without Ambition, You Need a Tonic

Rich, Red Blood Fights Off Disease and Keeps You Well and Enables You to Work With Pleasure

Serious sickness often comes when you least suspect. You may feel a little over-tired. You haven't been exposed to contagion, yet all of a sudden you are flat on your back and in for a siege of sickness.

Your blood did not have fighting qualities. It was weak and thin. Your vitality and power of resistance were low.

When you overdo you use up energy. Your blood is driven to do more than it can. It becomes clogged with waste. This waste acts like poison. Disease germs get in your blood and dominate.

Don't let yourself get run down. Take that good tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It makes rich, red blood that will resist and rout out disease germs.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. Both have the same effect.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. Advertisement

SPORTING NOTES

A large number of Clearfield boxing fans expect to go to DuBois Tuesday evening to see the boxing card at the Columbia Athletic Club show. Clarence Henderson, the local 150 pound battler, will meet Bobby Roberts, a DuBois boy, in the semi-final. The main bout is between Young Jack Dempsey, of Rochester, N. Y., and Jimmie Dunn, of Pittsburgh.

The St. Bonaventure basketball team will meet the local high school team at the high school gym on Tuesday evning and a bang-up game should be the result of this clash. St. Bonaventure has one of the best teams to be found among the smaller colleges of New York state.

The local Boy Scouts gave the Blain City Juniors an awful beating at the high school gym Saturday evening last. The final score was 5 to 13, and to show the class of the local lads they prevented the opponents from making a single score during the second half.

J. E. Fry, of DuBois, is transacting business in town.

WOODLAND M. E. CHURCH NEWS

There was a large audience out to hear Dr. Collins' lecture Friday evening. His subject was "The House That Jack Built" and he handled it in a masterly manner and delighted everybody. We hope to have him with us again at some future date. Pleasing features of the entertainment were the piano duet of Misses Mary Baker and Elizabeth Barger and the celo solo of Miss Bessie Baker.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Baker on Wednesday. All the women of the church are invited. Dinner will be served at noon and any who wish are privileged to come in and get their dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ammerman, of Frenchville, spent Saturday in town.

Foley's Honey and Tar COMPOUND

CLEARS THE THROAT of phlegm and mucus, stops that tickling, opens the air passages for easier breathing and coats the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing medicine.

Grateful Father Tells What It Did

W. E. Curry, 130 Up 6th St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have a little girl 6 years who has a good deal of trouble with croup. I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, giving it to her according to directions, and obtaining instant relief for her. My wife and I use it whenever bothered with a bad cold or cough, and I will say that it is the best remedy for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble or croup that I ever saw."

Parents who use Foley's Honey and Tar know it is safe and no harm will come even if an o. dose should be given by accident. It tastes good and children like it. It won't upset the delicate stomachs of young children, delicate persons or elderly people.

That Crescent Band concert sure whetted our appetites for our Legion Band concert a week from tomorrow evening.

Do our readers like Walt Mason? No doubt they do. Walt's short stories will appear frequently in The Progress in the near future.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has floated an issue of $60,000,000 15-year, 6½ per cent bonds. The price paid by the public was but a fraction of a point below par. The applications for the securities totaled $288,000,000. The transaction is a striking illustration of the progress of deflation in this country. Only a few monhts ago some of the soundest industrial concerns in the United States were offering bonds bearing 8 per cent. interest. They found a ready market but had the rate been less their sale would not have been assured.

In considering the purchase of a ticket for the Legion Band Concert on Tuesday a week, February 22nd, do not overlook the fact that you are helping along a very much needed institution in the community and that instead of paying for just that one concert you are paying for a dozen or so. We remember that the band has turned out on no less than a half dozen occasions for community affairs; in fact have responded to every call. We have also had two delightful Sunday afternoon concerts free. More are to come. Concerts are planned for the entire year and it is the plan of the band to hold only two paid concerts each year. The Driggs Theatre should be filled to the doors on Washington's Birthday.

"I am in favor of such a tariff as will equalize the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad—equal rights to all, special privileges to none, especially no special privileges to foreigners." That is good Republican doctrine, but spoken by one of the most ardent Democrats at the Capitol, Senator Ashurst of Arizona. He preceded his declaration for protection by the reference to the long-staple cotton of Egypt." The fellah of Egypt," declared Mr. Ashurst, "can send his long-staple cotton into the American markets at about 30 cents a pound. It cannot be produced under American ideals for less than 60 cents per pound." The inference is plain. The truth is that every American is a protectionist the moment his local product is menaced by foreign competition.

Dispatches from London are to the effect that Lord Chalmers will return to the United States with Ambassador Geddes, empowered to arrange for the funding of the British debt of about $4,200,000 to this country. It is said that the British, including Lloyd George, are at last convinced that the United States will never consent to a cancellation of the obligation or to its payment parallel with inter-allied debts. It is well that our English friends have finally realized the truth. America got no recompense, either in reparations or mandate territory, for her sacrifice in France. On the other hand the principal allies enormously enriched themselves by the spoils of war. Even with the payment of the debt owed to this country, their wealth will be far greater than it was before the conflict.

To Be Remembered.

We sometimes need to remember that it takes some shadows to bring out the richness and beauty, and humaneness of life, as well as of pictures.

A Native Acacia.

Southern California boasts one native species of acacia, the cat's claw (a Gregii), which is but a shrub in that state, but becomes a tree in Arizona. It bears small pale yellow flowers and an abundance of very sharp thorns.

Spanish Tongue Supreme.

Together with Portuguese, which is practically a dialect, Spanish is the language of the whole western hemisphere south of the Rio Grande, a region of incalculable natural wealth and vast trade possibilities.

The Opposite Perhaps.

"Hard work will kill no one," declares a literary editor. Most people, of course, prefer an occupation with a spice of danger about it.—London Punch.

PROGRESS PROGRESS

Why Not ?

We believe we convinced you on Saturday in this column that "self" was the greatest and most-widely advertised commodity in the world.

We believe we opened your eyes to a new vision of the meaning of the word advertising by which your mind has been set to working and you have a keener realization of its possibilities.

We believe our little preachment on "how to use advertising to a further advantage" pointed the way to many young men and young women who have ability and accomplishments to sell to the highest bidder.

You are both "the goods" and "the salesman." We have not yet talked to you about your status as a salesman. If you are sure of yourself why can you not be a successful salesman?

We think we know why. You are like the merchant who has a fine line of goods, and has a reputation for keeping a good line, depends entirely on people coming into his shop to look at them.

You may, like other merchants, think your reputation which is the show window of your stock in trade, will create a market for your mental wares and bring a rush of buyers.

Partial success may be realized by show window-reputation advertising but a reputation is a fleeting asset and absolute dependance on this wil bring disappointment.

There is a method whereby you can market your services in a dignified manner and in a way that will bring your qualifications before thousands of people every day. But you must have the goods if it is to bring results.

Are you out of a job or do you feel you can do another thing better if given the opportunity? If so, why waste your time getting the new start in a life all too short.

You may dislike to unfold your thoughts to the world and a natural modesty prevents you from attesting to your own faith in yourself. Many people are afraid of their name in cold print.

No need for that. Any newspaper man will gladly assist you in the preparation of your advertisement and your name need not be made known.

It is simple. It is only justice to yourself to take advantage of every convenience to advance your interests. You have used every other means of self advertisemnt. You may as well use the most effective one—newspaper advertising.

FAWN RESCUED FROM DOGS SATURDAY NEAR TOWN

Game Keeper L. D. Rearick of the Kennedy Park game reserve, came to town this morning and secured a doe fawn which had been run almost to death by dogs and was rescued near the Anderson mine beyond the Paradise section Saturday evening.

The deer was brought to town this morning by Mr. Rearick while he was here purchasing supplies and attracted a lot of the curious. She was all in and enjoyed the security of the box she was in utterly regardless of the sightseers crowding around her.

The grand jury inquest, inquiring in and for Clearfield county, February sessions, 1921, do respectfully submit the following report:

W have acted upon twenty-five (25) bills of indictment, of which we returned 24 true bills and one not true bill.

The grand jury visited all the county buildings, investigated conditions and submits the following observations and recommendations:

As to the Second street bridge, we recommend that the approach to same at west end be repaired either by new blocks or by raising so that water from road will not run on sidewalk.

We express our thanks for the hospitality shown the grand jury by Sheriff Gorman of the jail, Mr. and Mrs. McMullin of the county home, also Judge Bell, the district attorney and Mr. Rowles.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. GREEN,

MRS. H. O. PETERS, of Kansas City, Mo., whose experience with Tanlac has been nothing less than wonderful, declares her husband. After her improvement he takes it himself and his health is also restored.

"One day a friend persuaded my wife to take Tanlac and the results have been nothing less than wonderful. Her troubles have not only entirely disappeared, but she has actually gained twenty pounds in weight and now seems to be in perfect health. She has suffered for eight years with headaches, nervousness and loss of appetite and was in a badly run-down condition. She could not eat much, had pains all through her body and limbs was so weak at times she could hardly stand on her feet. She was losing weight and gradually getting worse all the time in spite of all we could do.

"After seeing the splendid results my wife was getting I began taking Tanlac myself and before I had finished my second bottle, I was eating things I had not dared touch before in a long time. I am now eating just anything set before me and my appetite is fine. I suffered for five years with the worst kind of stomach trouble and nervous indigestion, but it has relieved me entirely. We both owe Tanlac a great debt of gratitude."

The above enthusiastic statement was made recently by Herbert O. Peters, well-known citizen of Kansas City, Missouri, residing at 521 Walnut street.

Tanlac is sold by all leading druggists everywhere.

I heartily recommend its use by young girls entering into womanhood."—MISS MARY C. ZIMMERMAN, 1511, 13th Ave.

Oil City, Pa.—"When I was a girl about sixteen years of age I suffered from functional disturbances. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the medicine that was given to me to restore me to perfect health. It did all that could be desired in regulating my system and relieving me of pain. I heartily recommend the 'Prescription' to all young girls and women who require a special tonic."—MRS. FRED MILFORD, 207 East Second St., So. Side.

Chester, Pa.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription Tablets helped me so much I would not be without them. First of all they are so nice to take. ROBBERS ENTERED UNION STORE BUT GOT LITTLE CASH

The Union Co-operative store, located in the Mechanics building, at the west end of Second street bridge, was entered by burglars last night and $5 in money and a quantity of cigars, cigarettes and tobacco was taken. Entrance to the cellar was gained through a window and the lock broken off the door from the cellar into the store room.

The burglars missed getting a considerable amount of money by an eye winker. Manager Taylor had secreted a bag containing Saturday's receipts, which were quite heavy, in a barrel of coffee on the floor. The marauders dug around in that very barrel, but did not dig deep enough to uncover the cash.

A spiral screw driver and a No. 7 rubber overshoe was left in the cellar by the robbers.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect

PROCEEDINGS OF SUPERVISORS MEET ON FEBRUARY 8th

Clearfield county roads are concerned and the people of the county living along township roads can certainly expect a big improvement over past conditions. Mr. Thompson is a very forceful speaker and handled his subject in a way that made all details perfectly clear to all present and he was able to handle all questions put to him in a delightful manner, after which Hon. A. H. Woodward addressed the meeting on the subject of "Equalization of Taxation" and gave a delightful address. After Mr. Woodward, other addresses were given by J. C. Forsythe, Esq., T. R. Weimer, president of the Board of County Commissioners and others, after which time the Resolutions Committee reported. Among other resolutions, the Supervisors were on record as opposing the taking over of all roads within the Commonwealth by the State Highway Department and some other resolutions that applied particularly to the supervisors.

The President then called for the election of officers and it was unanimously voted that all 1920 officers should be re-elected to serve during the ensuing year.

The meeting adjourned at 5 p. m. to meet the second Tuesday in February, 1922, or subject to the call of officers.

Ralph Kennard spent Saturday transacting business in Woodland.

Mrs. John Stauffer, of Burnside, is spending a few days with friends here.

NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

The Faith that Builds Railroads

MANY New York Central stockholders own only one or two shares — a savings nest-egg. But the holder of a few shares of stock has the same satisfaction as the larger investor of taking part in the development of an important public service while providing an income for himself.

In his classic study of "Lombard Street," Walter Bagehot, the brilliant English economist, asserted that a citizen of London of Queen Elizabeth's time would have thought it no use inventing railways because he would have been unable to conceive the possibility of collecting the vast sums of capital needed for their construction.

Even Bagehot, writing only fifty years ago, probably would have been amazed by the thought of attracting the capital needed for the building and development of a thirteen-thousand-mile railroad system like the New York Central.

Now nearing a century of public service, the New York Central Lines represent a property investment of $1,720,000,000. Against this investment stocks and bonds have been issued to the amount of $1,543,000,000—that is, the actual value of the property is greatly in excess of the outstanding securities.

Scattered throughout the United States and in many foreign countries are more than 120,000 individual investors and institutions who have become partners in this great enterprise.

The number of owners of the stock of the New York Central Railroad Company, the parent company of the system, has increased by forty per cent in the past four years.

The growth of railroad facilities, to keep pace with the ever-increasing demands of American industry, depends upon a continuance of this public faith in railroads as investments, which is so strikingly shown by the widespread ownership of New York Central securities.
